Game Rules: How to play Truth or Dare 🤪

Do you have secrets? Are there things that nobody knows about you (except perhaps your best friend)? Things that would even silence your friends for a minute - or make them laugh? Sure! No matter how well you know your friends, there are always things you don't know yet or even regret knowing afterwards.

And that's what Truth or Dare is all about. The game is simple. All players stand or sit in a circle. Then place an empty bottle on a table or the ground.

The youngest player begins by rotating the bottle. The bottleneck now points to a player and the starting player asks the question: Truth or Dare? The person in question must choose between these two.

Truth

The person who has rotated the bottle may ask the player any question. He or she should answer with the absolute truth. The fun of the game depends on this!
